

New course under construction at Fox Hills Resort

A new 18-hole Tournament Players type golf course is under construction at Fox Hills in Mishicot. The par-72 layout will play 7,030 yards from the gold tees, and 5,370 from the red tees. The course features an island green, completely surrounded by water (No. 17), an oasis green, completely surrounded by a small desert, a one-acre putting surface, comprised of the 9th and 18th greens and two putting greens, and a landing area, completely surrounded by water, on the 6th hole.
